TUESDAY EVENING. MAY 16, 1893.

THE CHICAGO Herald says: "The bloody shirt has disappeared from the princess, does not definitely settle the northern air, but the enthusiastic nummery over the putrescence which is all that is left of the Confederate chieftain will give those who waved it their aptest text, and their most exhilarating inspiration." If the Herald really thinks "the bloody shirt has disappeared from the northern air" it has either been asleep for the last year, or else it doesn't read its northern exchanges. But no matter what its condition may be, as neither the Constitution nor any of its amendments prohibit the southern people from paying well merited honor and respect to the remains of their dead President, they will do so whether the bloody shirt be waved or not in the North. It has waved there so long and so incessantly that they have become used to it, and its sight has ceased to excite their special wonder. Prominent ex-Confederates attended the removal of the remains of President Grant. But what the Herald says is what the South gets for gushing.

THE GOVERNOR of Colorado is authority for the statement that the recent Indian troubles in his State are attributable, not to the Indians, but to the federal government, or, what amounts to the same thing, to its agents. So it has been from the first, and so will it continue to be until all Indians have been made "good Indians," and all their land be held by those who shall have robbed them of their last acre. Retribution is inevitable and inexorable, but such would not be the case if the monumental sins committed by the white, upon the native race of this country be not atoned for with great tribulation. Why, the Spaniards in Mexico and Peru took the gold of those countries, but spared the natives their lives and allowed them to retain at least a part of their lands; but here whole nations have been exterminated in order that their lands might be seized by their pale-faced invaders, to whom land is as attractive as oil-cloths and brass cannon were to the Confederates.

IT was only a month ago that one of a factory's girls at Bridgeport, Connecticut, objectionable to the others berolled down an inclined plane. Last by having a false snake cast at her. others during dinner hour some time ago, some northern republican newspapers said such treatment afforded only cumulative evidence of the semi-barbarous condition of the people of the South. Geography is a potential factor in the North.

EVERY INDEPENDENT government has the right to exclude from its territory any and every body it may deem objectionable. That right is the good old one of might, and can be maintained as long as there is sufficient power to do so. But still, why people from all the other countries of the habitable globe should be allowed free access to the United States, to compete with Americans in every branch of labor, and even to contend with them in the political field, while those from China. whose occupations are limited, and who never even think, let alone talk, of politics, should be rigidly excluded, is what passes the comprehension of many other men besides Senator Stanford and Colonel Mosby.

UNLESS Mr. Hampton Hoge, the Virginian who has recently been appointed U. S. consul at Amoy, shall reach that port at an early date, he will probably never do so, as the Chinese government, if it be like that of any other nation in the world, will, after yesterday's decision of the U.S. Supreme Court, be very likely to expel all Americans from its territory, and close all relations, consular as well as diplomatic, with this country as soon as possi-

IF THE old saw that there is no evil without its compensating good prove true, the necessity for raising the ten million required for deporting the Chinese, and the scores of millions requisite for paying fraudulent pensions, will compel the calling of an early extra session of Congress and the laying of an income tax. The Congress once in session, the McKinley bill and the silver purchasing bill would soon be repealed.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.] WASHINGTON, D. C., May 16.

Sunday night, informing him of the conclusions reached by the administration upon the matter of the reception and entertainment of the Infanta Eulalie was apparently satisfactory to the government of Spain, inasmuch as the Captain-General of Cuba received instructions yesterday to have the programme governing the Infanta's movements carried out in the departure of her highness and suite from Havana for New York. The cablegram of Sunday night to Minister Snowden directing him to advise the Spanish government that all courtesy and considera-tion due to the rank and station of the mooted question whether or not President Cleveland will call upon the Princess at her hotel after she has paid her respects to the chief executive at the White House. epresentatives Swanson and O'Ferrall of Virginia called at the White House to-day, and had quite a long interview with the President.

Representative Meredith called at the Postoffice Department this morning, and at his request the cases of the postmasters at Calverton, Fauquier, Herndon, Fairfax, and Hamilton, Loudoun counties, whose removal is asked for on account of offensive partisanism, were made special. Mr. Mer-edith has recommended Samuel Simpson for the office at Calverton, A. G. Hutchinson for that at Herndon, and

C. F. French for that at Hamilton. Charges of fraud and corruption in the patent office, so far as investigated, show that that bureau is as rotten as the pension, or weather or any other bureau of the government. The investigation will be extended, and those in positions to know whereof they speak on the subject, say the developments will be anything else than favorable to the claim that the Harrison, was a pure

Rev. Patrick Corrigan entertained Papal Delegate Satolli at a banquet in Hoboken, N. J., last night. Bishop Wigger was not present. Governor Werts responded to the toast to President Cleveland. Monsignor Satolli spoke in Italian.

All loubt as to the visit of the In fanta Eulalie was set aside yesterday when Secretary Gresham received a cablegram from Consul Williams at Havana, saying, "Their royal high-nesses, the Infantases, will sail this afternoon for New York.'

After the recess yesterday the U. S. Supreme Court denied the motion for a rehearing of the Chinese exclusion case, so the opinion stands as announced in the GAZETTE of that day. Conservative estimate places the amount neces sary to deport the unregistered Chinese at $6,000,000. The suggestion is made in official circles that Chinese unregistered may now go to the courts and ask o be allowed to register and remain in this country.

A violin was seized for debt the other day in St. Louis that is said to be a Guarnerius that once belonged to Ole Bull, and the mate to one used by ganini, and bequeathed by him to his native city. The St. Louis instrument is said to have been sold by Ole Bull in 1850, when he was hard pressed for money, for $100, to Major Henry T. Messengale. Since then it has had various vicissitudes as a pledge for loans of small amounts.

SHOT HIS 'VIFE AS REQUESTED .-Secretary Smith yesterday received a telegram from Lieut. Johnson at Fort Apache, Ariz., dated April 27, giving a circumstancial account of the killing of four Indians on Chicu Creek on the 26th. The report says :

"Ah-Des-Pah tried to force his wife to drink tswin. She refused, and told her husband to kill her. Her father was present on horseback, and, believing his son-in-law joking, also told him to go ahead and kill his daughter. Ah-Des-Pah shot and killed his wife. father, Nan-Acho-Ah-Hah and a young buck, Tah-Ho-Shan, rushed in to pre-vent Ah-Des-Pah from killing his wife, when the latter turned his Winchester on them and killed them both. An Indian named Johrin, hearing shots, rode up, dismounted from his mule to get his gun from the boot attached to the gun from the boot attached to the saddle, when Ah-Des-Pah fired two shots, both of which missed. Ah-Des-Pah then fled, but Johrin pursued, and killed him at the third shot. All is quiet. I have sent deputies to the scene to prevent the Indians from gathering in excited groups."

SOUTHERN BAPTIST CONVENTION .-Judge Haraldson presided at the Baptist Convention at Nashville, Tenn. yesterday. Dr. W. B. Bagby, missionary to Brazil, expressed the hope that this year the Baptists would send at least half a dozen more workers to South America. Dr. J. B. Gamble, of Mississippi, submitted a report on the importance of home missions. He cited the fact that some 20,000,000 people came within the field of Christain home missions. Of these about 7,000, 000 are negroes. Dr. J. L. McMansway submitted a report on "Work Among Colored People." The report advised the further encouragement of educa-tion among the colored people, favored a close relation with them in a re-ligious sense and expressed apprehension at the recent inroads on that field by Roman Catholics. Governor Northen, of Georgia, led the convention in prayer for the work among colored people. The Woman's Missionary Auxiliary to the Southern Baptist Convention re-elected president Miss Fannie E. Heck; corresponding secretary, Miss Annie W. Armstrong; recording secretary, Mrs. F. M. Ellis; treasurer, Mrs. M. E. Oliver. retary, spected lady living near Mount Pleasant, Spottsylvania county, died at her residence on Saturday morning, in the 82nd year of her age. It is reported that George Drier, under sentence of death for the murder of Mrs. Fadden, at Cape Charles, has made a confession. He is to be hanged at Eastville June 16.

Governor McKinney has secured the steamer Petrel, of the United States fish commission department, with which to complete the survey of Virginia oyster grounds.

The indications now warrant the belief that there will be more representa-tive southern men in Richmond on the occasion of the reinterment of the remains of Hon. Jeff. Davis, on the 31st, than has gathered since the close of the war.

THE GOLDEN ROSE.—The Pope will send the Golden Rose of Virtue this year to Marie Henrietta, Queen of the Belgians.

Queen Marie Henrietta is the second daughter of the late Archduke Joseph Palatine of Hungary and the Princess of Wurtemburg. She was born and rear-ed at Buda Pesth, and spent most of her time in the open air, being special-ly fond of horses, dogs and flowers. She was a great admirer of the Magyar patriots who rebelled against tyranny the of Metternich and Schwartzenberg, and it was rumored that she burned candles in the schloss chapel for the escape of Kossuth and Andrassy when they were being tracked toward Belgrade. fond of pomp or ostentation, she became still more averse to them upon the death of her son, the Prince Royal of Belgium, in 1870. Since then she has seldom occupied the State box at the theatre except when gala performances were given in honor of her daughters' marriages, and in every other way has shown her desire to re-tire from public life and confine herself to her domestic duties. The Golden Rose is an ornamen blessed by the Pope on the fourth Sunday in Lent every year and sent occasionally to Catholic sovereigns, to noted churches and sanctuaries and to great generals and illustrious Catholic cities or republics. It was originally s single flower of wrought gold, colored red. Later the golden petals were decked with rubies and other gems, and finally the form adopted was that of a thorny branch with several flowers at the top, all of pure gold. The prac tice appears to have arisen in the thirteenth century, but by which Pope it was instituted in its present form is uncertain. Among the recepients of the Golden Rose were Napoleon III. and Isabella II. of Spain.

Horse Race.-Diablo, the aged son of Eolus and Grace Darling, won the richBrooklyn handicap atGravesendyes terday afternoon, in the presence of 30,-000 persons. Lamplighter, the favorite, was second, and Leonawell third. The winner's time was 2:09.

The Brooklyn handicap was the seventh in the history of the event and was guaranteed to be worth $25,000. Of good milling, no choice longberry was offered. this sum the winner gets $18,000, the second horse $5,000 and the third horse $2,000. The day was bright and fair.
Diablo was bred by R. J. Hancock for the late Major Thomas W. Doswell. The horse was bred at Bullfield, Va., at the farm that in racing has become prominent as the Ellerslie Stud.

CHAPEL POINT .- Mr. John S. Hiestand, of York, Pa., has leased from Mr. Charles C. Lancaster, the hotel and summer resort at Chapel Point, includ-ing the steam mill, wharf and other appurtenances, and has taken possession this week. Mr. Hiestand has sublet the hotel to Mrs. A. P. Kretchmar mother of Capt. E. S. Randall, proprie tor of the summer resort at River View The hotel will be handsomely furnish ed. The lessees will devote their best efforts to make Chapel Point a most attractive place. It is expected that the resort will be open by the first week in June and daily excursions will be brought down by steamer and by rail Port Tobacco Times.

It is reported that Mayor Strauss is in favor of increasing the corporation debt to the tune of increasing the corporation debt to the tune of $200,000 for street improvement purposes. If the report is true, let him say so at once. We have yet time to put another ticket in the field and still be generats. Many of our taxpayers are willing to be assessed an additional sum for street improvements, but are not ready to assume a burden of $200,000 at 5 per cent, when they know that the bonds will be negotiated at 50 cents on the dollar. The report gives him the credit of heing a bank director, and that he is in a position to guarantee that the bonds can be sold at par. If so, say so.

To tell the world their worth.

To none can these lines apply with stronger emphasis than to the late Miss Harrier C. Taylor. Gentle, intelligent, refined, the light of her home, and beloved by all who knew her, her loss is most deeply felt and sadly mourned by those amongst whom her life was passed. Distinguished alike by a sound clear judgment, a heart overflowing with tender ress and a sparkling with whose with tenderness, and a sparkling wit, whose sunny brightness hid no sting of bitterness, it was a pleasure to know her, an inestimable privilege to call her friend; and now that, in the full confidence of the Christian's hope and faith, she has passed from earth to heaven, we feel that the world is poorer for her loss, while heaven has gained one angel more sioned by an attempted criminal assault upon a young lady by a negro on Saturday evening. Sunday the negro was lodged in jail in Winchester, and, while it was known charges of this nature were against him, the names and particulars could not be obtained. Yesterday he was taken to Stephenson by Constable Stottlemeyer, accompanied by Commonwealth's Attorney R. E. Byrd, for trial before a magistrate. The young lady is the daughter of Mr. Edward Clevenger, of Jefferson county West Virginia, and has been visit-ing her aunt, Mrs. Rush, in Frederick county. On Saturday evening Miss Clevenger, accompanied by a little girl of about five years, was returning from the postoffice at Clearbrook. The negro, Wm. Shorter, followed her and threatened to kill her if she made any noise. She screamed loudly and fought him off. The little girl ran away and gave an alarm, which was heard by Mr. Kline, who came to the young lady's assistance. The negro then ran away and was not caught until Sunday morning. After being identified by Miss Clevenger yesterday, the negro confessed and said he was drunk at the lime. The excitement was great and it was whispered that a rope was being prepared by the crowd, which number ed about one hundred. Mr. Byrd appealed to the crowd to allow the law to take its course, and the negro was re-turned to jail. He is now in a well secured iron cage and no further trouble citizens of that town, the result of an old feud. Captain J. B. Cocke was shot and seriously injured by E. L. Huey and B. M. Huey jr. The shooting, which was done in the main street of the town, is claimed to have been done in self defense.

SULLIVAN'S COWARDLY ACT .- A WATrant for assault and battery was issued from the Biddeford, Me., Court yesterday and given to a deputy sheriff to serve on John L. Sullivan, who is in Bangor. The assault was committed on the Pullman train Sunday night on which Sullivan and Lawyer Max L. Lizotte, of Biddeford, were passengers. Lizotte reached in front of the ex-champion to shake hands with John Shee-Sullivan party with whom Lizotte is acquainted. As with whom Lizotte is acquainted. As he did so Sullivan gave him a kick in Emma Brown, a book of poems; Mrs Baker the groin which sent the lawyer across the car. Lizotte is a powerful man, though he has only one arm, and he rallied and went at Sullivan, clinching him and turning him over a car seat They were separated, but were hardly parted before another member of the Sullivan party strick Lizotte in the face, cutting his lips and making his nose bleed. Sullivan took advantage of the situation and choked the lawyer, leaving his finger-marks upon his throat. They were finally separated. Lizotte says he shall have Sullivan bound over to the grand jury.

A serious wreck occured on the Pan Handle near Frasersburg, Ohio, this morning. An axle broke on a freight car just as the train entered the bridge over the canal. The bridge was dragged down and fifteen cars piled up in the canal. The trainmen escaped by jumping, but two tramps, who were stealing a ride, were killed.

Bad weather continues to prevail at Chicago. The attendance at the fair this morning was lighter than it has been for many days and the Exposition people are discouraged accordingly. The average paid attendance so far has not been much over 17,000 daily, which is far below the number necessary to meet even the operating expenses of the Exposition.

The cruiser New York sailed from Cramp's shipyard, Philadelphia, this morning, while the rain was pouring in torrents, to go to sea for her official trial trip. The expense of the trip will be $30,000 and the official trial will consist of two cruises over a measured course between Cape Ann, Mass., and Cape Porpoise, Maine. Should she maintain the record made on the unofficial trip she will earn premiums of nearly $200,-000 for her builders.
